HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Last month was our annual Christmas Party at Golden Corral and it looked a good time was had by all. We ate too much food, talked with friends and had our usual raffle. We raffled 32 gold, silver, and slabbed type coins with the a list price of $1090. Ron swept away both gold prizes this year!

For all our members who secretly wanted to be a Pawn Star your big opportunity is at the The 60th ANNIVERSARY FUN SHOW. Rick Harrison and the Casting Team of Pawn Stars will be at the N.G.C. Booth #1617, Jan 9 from 1 p.m. To 3 p.m., looking for coins for upcoming shows. So put your game face on and go strut your stuff. The fun show will be January 8 to the 11th, open to the public Thursday at 10 a.m. 2015 is also the 300 Hundred Anniversary of the sinking of The Spanish Fleet off of our shore. The FUN Show will have an exhibit of Artifacts from the Fleet at the Show.

Jack Lane and Richard Ahlquist will be presenting a program on collecting foreign coins at our January meeting.

We spent the $57 netted at November's raffle on the following coins to Raffle in January.

1. 2012 Canadian Cougar 1 oz. .9999 Silver Coin.
2. 2014 Canadian Grey ¾ oz. .9999 Silver Coin.
3. 2008 Lincoln 1c ANACS Proof DCAM
4. 2010 Lincoln Shield 1c ANACS Proof 70 DCAM.
5. 2008 Jefferson Nickel ANACS Proof 70 DCAM
6. 2005 P Sacagawea $ ICG MS 67 (TRIVIA)

Get your gold guesses ready. We'll be guessing what the price of gold and silver will be on the day of our 2015 Christmas Party. The members who come closest win a prize.
